

Activity A

Discussion questions:

Answers will vary

Activity C Comprehension questions:

Match the slang terms with their meanings.

Slang Terms	Meanings
1. Mid	b) Not exceptionally good or bad; average.
2. Banger	c) A great and catchy song.
3. Slaps	a) Something particularly or surprisingly good, usually about food or music.
4. Bet	d) Okay or agreed.

Activity E: Comprehension Questions:

1. " SPILL the Tea!" is a slang term used to ask someone to share gossip or information.
2. According to the dialog, " MID " is used to describe something that is average or mediocre.
3. After seeing Jason's new car, the speaker thought it was MID .
4. What does the slang "tbh" stand for?
To be happy/To be honest/Too busy here/Take back home
5. What did the one friend think about seeing Jason's new car?
It was pretty average
6. Did the other friend agree with his/her friend's opinion? How do you know?

They didn't like what Jason did. They also think that Jason is trying to impress others.

Activity F: Critical Thinking

Answers will vary

Activity H: Comprehension questions

1. What does each person think about the opportunity to study abroad? (choose 2 answers)
 - a) One thinks it's a great deal
 - b) One thinks it's lacking important details
2. What do you think the slang word "SKETCHY" might mean?
 - a) illegitimate/dangerous
3. What does the person mean when they describe the opportunity as a "PRETTY SWEET DEAL"?
 - b) They think it's a good bargain.
4. How does the friend feel about the opportunity when they describe it as "pretty SUS"?
 - b) They think it's suspicious.
5. "It doesn't look LEGIT,". What does "LEGIT" most likely mean?
 - b) Legitimate
6. What reason does the one friend give for doubting the legitimacy of the opportunity?
 - a) The advertisement lacks specific details about the school
7. What does the one friend imply when they accuse the other of "GASLIGHTING" them?
 - a) They are accusing the person of manipulating them or causing them to doubt themselves.
8. When the one friend tells the other, "Don't get SALTY," what does "SALTY" likely mean?
 - a) Angry/annoyed
9. What do you think it means when the friend apologizes for acting "OUT OF POCKET"?
 - b) They apologize for being unreasonable.

10. How does the one friend react when the other expresses doubts?

a) They accuse them of being envious

11. What ultimately convinces both people that the opportunity is likely a scam?

d) all of the above

12. What do you think the friend meant when they said, "It's no big deal, we all get sucked in by scams or fake news sometimes"?

b) They are reassuring them that we all make mistakes sometimes

Activity J

Comprehension Questions:

1. What do you think the slang "to be in a pickle" means?

b) To be in a difficult or tricky situation

2. When someone says "off the hop" what are they most likely doing?

b) right away or immediately

3. What do you think the slang "he is cooked" mean?

b) He is exhausted or finished

4. If a student says they were "sweating bullets" before an exam, what do they mean?

c) They were extremely nervous

5. What may happen next to the person whose identity was compromised? Answers will vary

6. How would you react in this situation? Who would you talk to? Answers will vary

Activity K: Critical Thinking

Answers will vary

Activity M:

Comprehension Questions:

1. When someone says "I fell for (it)," what are they most likely describing?

They believed a lie or a trick

2. What does the slang "in the ballpark" mean?

To be close to the correct amount or value

3. If your friend says "that's a little steep" about a dinner bill, what do they mean?

The bill is higher than expected

4. When someone says they need to "buckle down," what are they most likely planning to do?

Begin to focus and work diligently

5. What does the slang "I am so stoked" mean?

I am extremely excited or enthusiastic

6. How would you feel about going on an adventure such as this? Answers will vary

7. What other questions might you have for your friend before agreeing to go? Answer will vary

Activity O: Reflection Questions

Answers will vary